AN ANGRY WOMAN

Uses a Horsewhip ond Red Pepper With Great Severity Upon a Bridgeport Physician-Created a Sensation.

There was more excitement in Bridgeport yesterday afternoon that has occurred in that place for many a the excitement. Some trouble had occurred between Mrs. Ross Hill, residing out the plank road, and Dr. Paul E. Hepler, the exact nature of which could not be learned. The former met the doctor on the street, near the Cleveland & Pittsburgh freight house, where, with a cow-hide whip she commenced administer to him a severe whipping. He kept on walking down street to-He kept on walking down street to-wards Dent's drug store and with al-most every step received a blow from the whip of the young lady. He en-dured this until he reached Richard Balley's shoe store, where he dodged in the open door. During the proceed-ings above noted she threw red pepper in his eyes, which fortunely for the in his eyes, which tortunely for the doctor, did not result disastrously. Mr. Hill, husband of the young lady, occupied a position on the opposite side of the street during the proceedings, and it is said urged his wife on. The affair recurred on the principal street and attracted a large crowd.

ROBBERY AT POWHATAN

Early Friday Morning-Thieves May Have Come to Wheeling.

Yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, three masked men entered the store of B. F. Disque, at Powhatan, through the B. F. Disque, at Powhatan, through the front door, which they unlocked with a key. They evidently knew all about the premises, for they made their way upstairs noiselessly and burst open the door of the room in which B. S. Neft was sleeping. They immediately selzed and bound him to the bed and proceedad to relieve him of what money they could find. They got seven or cight dollars and twenty dollars in oil coin, which was in his trunk. They also took thich was in his trunk. They also too his shot gun, revolvers and watch. The also took a watch which was on the desk in the store room which had been left for repairs. After prying open the money drawer, which contained noth-ing, they left, going north, probably to Wheeling or Beliaire.
